Judicial Process Commission (JPC) Faith Community Adult Mentoring Program (FCAMP)

November 18, 2009

The Judicial Process Commission (JPC) Faith Community Adult Mentoring Program is in need of individuals who are concerned about the problems in our city and would like to help by becoming a friend, guide, and a coach to someone who is trying to turn their life around.

We are in need of volunteers to serve as mentors in our Program. We provide a free two evening training session and a mentoring handbook; along with a daily assistance to help you while you are mentoring.

Having a mentor has proven to be instrumental to those who are coming out of our correctional facilities and/or who are trying to maintain their sobriety. Just to let someone know that you care, that you want the best for them and are available for encouragement and sound, practical advice means a lot when you're fighting to get your life straightened out.

Our next Mentor Training Event is January 18th and 19th, 2010 at 84 Scio Street (one block from East Main near to the Eastman Theatre).

Thank you for your consideration of our request, and we look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Valerie White-Whittick
JPC Mentor Coordinator
